

ALLIED HEALTH ASSISTANTS

Allied Health Assistants work under the direction of the Physiotherapist, Occupational Therapist or other visiting allied health professionals such as the Dietician or Podiatrist, in the delivery of service to clients who are an important asset to our service. Their roles include the running of group programs, organising aids and equipment for clients or supervision of individual programs prescribed by the Allied Health professional. The Active Service Model of keeping people active is a core part of our approach.